

MEET ROBERT

As a young man, Robert joined a gang, hoping to find security and community. Instead, he spent time in prison and had to do the hardest thing any parent could imagine—bury his young son.

After prison, Robert found a job as a barber and needed assistance to get the required tools for his new job. Through the support of our donors, Small Sums provided Robert with a "Tools for the Job" package, including work gear, shoes, clippers, razors, a cape, and transportation.

Today, Robert is living in stable housing, fully employed, and sharing his infectious smile with all who cross his path.
